

Legal Rights of Teens

Adolescent Health Care: Legal Rights of Teens provides practical assistance for educators, health care providers, policy makers, and youth serving professionals. The document addresses the explicit references to the legal rights of teens required by Federal and State laws for ethical practices around health and mental health care. This document has been recently updated and is now available for a fee.

The link below is a sample of the document for your review.

<http://www.kidscounsel.org/AdHealthTCweb.pdf>

Please contact the Center for Children's Advocacy directly if you are interested in purchasing the complete document Adolescent Health Care: Legal Rights of Teens.

Center for Children's Advocacy
65 Elizabeth Street
Hartford, CT 06105
Phone: (860) 570-5327 Fax: (860) 570-5256